

BUILDING WEALTH™ POWERED BY TIGRENT LEARNING AUSTRALIA WELCOMES SOCIAL ENTREPRENEUR KEVIN GREEN (AS SEEN ON CHANNEL 4'S THE SECRET MILLIONAIRE) TO AUSTRALIA THIS DECEMBER 2009
"WHAT'S STOPPING YOU?" FROM GETTING YOUR FINANCES INTO SHAPE IN 2010?

Bored with the beach and looking to get your finances into shape for the New Year 2010? Look no further than to the Sydney shores, where Building Wealth™ training programmes, frontlined by UK social entrepreneur and Building Wealth™ trainer, Kevin Green, will be hosting a three-day Basic Training programme between 11th and 13th December 2009.

Kevin, who recently appeared in the prime-time Channel 4 (UK) television series, The Secret Millionaire, was originally a customer that trained through the UK's Building Wealth™ programme. Since then, social entrepreneur Kevin, has built up a property and land portfolio worth £29 million sterling, comprising 267 properties in England and his native Wales and is now committed to giving back to the next generation of entrepreneurs – through training and mentoring.

According to Iain Edwards, VP International and Managing Director of Tigrent Learning Australia:-

"I am delighted that Kevin Green is coming to Australia this Summer 2009. Not only are we welcoming Kevin here as a greatly valued investor and trainer within the Building Wealth™ training programme, but also at a time when Tigrent Inc., our parent company in the USA, is transforming across three Continents. The only question you need to ask yourself is..."What's Stopping You?" from paving the way for your own transformation in 2010.

"Our international Tigrent Inc. training offering is in a strong position to deliver to market, responding to a changing world with different needs. If you would have asked people around the world five or even 10 years ago whether they could ever imagine that a 150 year-old bank could collapse overnight, they may have laughed in your face. But it happened to us and in our lifetime. We should not sit back and show complacency if we believe our financial future is less than secure, regardless of where we are in the world," he adds.

Kevin is excited to have been given the opportunity to teach tried and tested wealth creation strategies in Australia, commenting:-

"With 2010 almost upon us, we often become reflective about our New Year's resolutions. The difference between a 'thought' and a viable 'result' though is 'action' and this is where Building Wealth™ training can make a real difference to Australians seeking more control over their financial future – helping customers take those first vital steps forward towards their personal path to financial independence.

"Particularly since I spent time undercover in the UK as a Channel 4 Secret Millionaire, I resist taking my success for granted. What I have achieved has taken time, learning from experts, coupled with hard graft, commitment and drive. I made mistakes along the way, as we all do, but as with any successful entrepreneur, I have a responsibility to continually evaluate and move with the market. What customers learn through the Building Wealth™ training programme is that success is possible within any marketplace, via sustainable strategies. But you'll have to come along to the Basic Training in December to find out more!" he added.

To meet Kevin and the Building Wealth™ team at an exclusive paid for three-day Basic Training in Sydney between Friday 11th to Sunday 13th December 2009 inclusive and to learn more about Building Wealth™ mindset and wealth creation strategies, please register for one of the following FREE preview seminars in Sydney, hosted by Matthew Sneddon. All preview attendees will receive a complimentary copy of a booklet entitled 'Ideas for Entrepreneurs', an invaluable reference guide for those starting out on their journey towards financial independence. Additional products and services will be offered for sale at the preview event.-
